

Safeguarding Policy for Onerahi Football Club (OFC)

OVERVIEW

Onerahi Football Club (OFC) is committed to providing football in a fun, safe and respectful environment for all participants. We recognise children's and youth's right to be free from all forms of abuse and acknowledge our duty of care to safeguard them. This policy outlines the actions Onerahi Football Club will take to protect children and vulnerable adults and is in line with NZ Football guidelines.

SCOPE

This policy applies to all Onerahi Football Club contractors or volunteers who have (or may have) regular or overnight contact with a child or vulnerable adult in the course of their duties. This includes coaches, team managers, match officials, volunteers and other club administrators ("club personnel"). Regular is defined as once per week, or at least 4 days per month.

GUIDELINES

What is "Safeguarding"?

Safeguarding is the term for the proactive measures we take to promote the welfare of children and vulnerable adults, prevent risk of injury or harm from taking place and being ready to respond if we're concerned that harm may be happening. Identifying risks, taking measures to prevent and reduce those risks and having systems in place to respond to concerns are all part of Safeguarding. This policy outlines the measures Onerahi Football Club will take to safeguard children and vulnerable adults and the process it will follow in the event of any concerns being raised.

For further information about safeguarding you can refer to NZ Football's Guidelines for Safeguarding Children & Vulnerable Adults.

Onerahi Football Club protocols for billeting or other overnight accommodation

Onerahi Football Club currently does not arrange/take kids on overnight stays and therefore, is not applicable.

Onerahi Football Club protocols for safety checking club personnel

Onerahi Football Club will ensure that all personnel who fall within the scope of this policy are police vetted. Individuals being vetted will access the NZF Police Vetting System, complete an online form, view a short training module and provide their identification documents to Onerahi Football Club's Safeguarding Officer for online verification. This identity check provides an added layer of security. Police vetting will be repeated every 3 years.

Refusing to undertake police vetting (or not providing identity evidence) will result in ineligibility to work with children or vulnerable adults at Onerahi Football Club. Onerahi Football Club accepts current police vetting conducted on coaches aged 18 and above, who have been vetted by Northland Football. Onerahi Football Club will keep a register of who has been vetted/passed.

Vetting Result

NZ Football's Guidelines for Safeguarding Children & Vulnerable Adults outlines the information that may be released by the police, who assesses the results, offences that result in automatic disqualification and the appeals process. The results of the vetting process are strictly confidential, and the only information that Onerahi Football Club will have access to is:

- Month/year vetting form was processed
- Team the person is connected with
- Date of receipt of the vetting result and if appropriate the outcome of any appeals process.

Onerahi Football Club acknowledges its duty of care to protect the personal information of those being vetted. All personal information will be treated confidentially in line with NZ Football's Privacy policy.

Onerahi Football Club protocols for handling any allegations of suspected abuse

Onerahi Football Club will respond to allegations of suspected child or vulnerable adult abuse in a manner that ensures the child's or vulnerable adult's safety is the first and paramount consideration. This includes any instances where an allegation is made against Onerahi Football Club personnel.

All concerns will be reported to the designated Safeguarding Advisor at Northland Region Football or to the NZF Safeguarding Manager. Contact details are available on the Northland Region Football website and the NZF website, where there is a flowchart that outlines the process to follow if abuse is suspected. The NZF and Federation Safeguarding team will then advise Onereahi Football Club on the next steps.

All concerns or allegations of sexual abuse, or if an immediate response is required to ensure the child's or vulnerable adult's safety will be reported immediately to the NZ Police.

This policy was adopted by Onerahi Football Club on 10th April 2024.
